Galapagos gala

A host of celebrity guests and patrons attended Some Enchanted Evening in aid of The Galapagos Conservation Trust on 17 June. Guests paid £500 a head to attend the event, organised by chairman Liz Brewer, at Chelsea Physic Garden. Laurent-Perrier sponsored the Champagne reception which also featured a lethal 'Dire-Straits' rum-based cocktail created by Dame Diana Rigg! Jeffrey Archer conducted an auction, which raised £90,000, followed by a fashion extravaganza created by couturier Eric Way, Bernard Chandron and Zandra Rhodes, and a gourmet dinner presented by Rhubarb. A further £100,000 was raised through ticket sales.
